Mini-Bru

Brussels-Capital
Region
in figures

2023

Dear readers,

We are pleased to present the 2023 edition of the Mini-Bru! This brochure will be of interest to anyone who is curious about the Brussels-Capital Region and wants to learn more about it. The Mini-Bru 2023 provides an at-a-glance summary of a whole range of key figures that shed light on some realities of Brussels and the challenges facing the Region.

Among the many themes addressed, the Region's inhabitants and their living conditions naturally enjoy a particular focus (characteristics of the population, household income, precarity and welfare benefits, health care, etc.). Other stakeholders are also represented, such as workers (labour market), companies (economy, research and technology) and public authorities (public finance, political institutions). Finally, you will find data on the territory and the living environment of Brussels residents (land use, real estate, mobility, environment, etc.). This edition of the Mini-Bru also presents new figures on the gender pay gap, business migration and digital performance.

Through this great diversity, the Mini-Bru touches on the numerous themes treated by the Brussels Institute for Statistics and Analysis (BISA) within perspective.brussels. At a time when one major crisis seems to follow another, BISA's work is more useful than ever, whether it is a matter of disseminating statistics, carrying out analyses or evaluating public policies related to the Brussels Region and its inhabitants.

We hope that Mini-Bru 2023 will pique your curiosity and wish you a good read.
